

THE LIFE OF DAVID GALE

Death row thriller with a conscience

“A ‘ticking clock’ suspenser with a serious social theme, The Life of David Gale stars Kevin Spacey as a University of Texas philosophy professor sentenced to death for the murder of one of his students.

“The bitter irony is that Spacey’s character, Gale, is an anti-death penalty activist. With Laura Linney as his likeminded colleague and Kate Winslet as a reporter who’s come to interview Gale in the days before he’s to die by lethal injection, the film is a tricky whodunit and a bracing examination of the moral arguments for and against state-sanctioned executions.”

– The Philadelphia Inquirer

“The death penalty is certainly a central issue and one that should be discussed. Clearly, this is an issue that is on the minds of everyone these days.”

– Kevin Spacey

Kevin Spacey plays David Gale, a philosophy professor opposed to the death penalty now facing execution for a student’s murder.

Kate Winslet plays a reporter who interviews Gale and investigates his claims of innocence just days before his scheduled execution.
